REPORT

OF THE

The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ Let him that Ministreth read with a loud voice these Sentences of Scripture, and after them the Exhortation following.

D the Lord our God belong mercies Dan. 9.
9, 10. and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws which he set before us.

O Lord, correct me, but with Jer. 10. 24. judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

D Early beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end, that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

A Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

A Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: Be pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¶ The People shall answer here, and at the end of all other Prayers, Amen.

¶ Then

Morning Prayer.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer; the People also kneeling, and repeating it with him.

OUR Father which art in heaven; hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open thou our lips.

Answ. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest. O God, make speed to save us.

Answ. O Lord, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,

Glorv be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost;

Answ. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Priest. Praise ye the Lord.

Answ. The Lords Name be praised.

¶ Instead of the Venite exultemus, shall be said this Hymn following; one Verse by the Priest, another by the Clerk and People.

O Come, let us humble our selves, and fall down before the Lord: with reverence and fear. Psal. 95. 6.

Let us search and try our ways: let us lift up our hearts with our hands unto God in the Heavens. Lam. 3. 40, 41.

Let us repent, and turn from our wickedness: and our sins shall be forgiven us. Acts 3.

Let us turn, and the Lord will turn from his heavy wrath: he will pardon us, and we shall not perish. Jonah 3.

Morning Prayer.

Psal. 22. 4. Our fathers hoped in thee, O Lord: they trusted in thee: and thou dost deliver them.

5. They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

Dan. 9. 18, 19. For thine own sake, and for thy holy Names sake, incline thine ear: and hear us, O merciful Lord.

Psal. 79. 9. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name: O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins for thy Names sake.

Psal. 68. 1. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him, flee before him.

2. Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away: like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly perish at the presence of God.

Psal. 86. 17. Shew some token upon us for good, that they who hate us may see it and be ashamed: because thou, Lord, hast holpen us, and comforted us.

Psal. 33. 21 Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us: like as we do put our trust in thee.

Glorie be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Proper Psalms, CVII, Ver. 23. to the end. Psal. CXLIV.

¶ The first Lesson, 2 Chron. XX. to Ver. 31.

¶ After the first Lesson, shall follow Te Deum laudamus in English.

WE praise thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee: the Father everlasting.

To thee all angels cry aloud: the heavens, and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin: continually do cry,

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabaoth.

Heaven

Morning Prayer.

7

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty : of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles : praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets : praise thee.

The noble Army of Martyrs : praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world : doth acknowledge thee ;

The Father : of an infinite Majesty ;

Thine honourable, true : and only Son ;

Also the Holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory : O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man : Thou didst not abhor the Virgins Womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come : to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy servants : whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints : in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people : and bless thine heritage.

Govern them : and lift them up for ever.

Day by day : we magnifie thee ;

And we worship thy Name : ever world without end.

Gloucliafe, O Lord : to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us : have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us : as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I trusted : let me never be confounded.

¶ The second Lesson, S. Luke XIII. Ver. 1. to Ver. 10.

Jubilate

Jubilate Deo. Psal. C.

O Be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands : serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure, that the Lord he is God : it is he that hath made us, and not we our selves, we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise : be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting : and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glorie be to the Father, &c.
As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Then shall be said the Apostles Creed by the Minister, and the People standing.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried, He descended into hell ; The third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I Believe in the Holy Ghost ; The holy Catholick Church ; The Communion of Saints ; The forgiveness of sins ; The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Answer.

And with thy Spirit.

Minister.

¶ Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

¶ Then the Minister, Clerks and People, shall say the Lords Prayer with a loud voice.

Our Father, which art in Heaven; hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest standing up, shall say,

Priest. O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.

Answ. And grant us thy salvation.

Priest. O Lord, save the Queen.

Answ. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Priest. Endue thy Ministers with righteousness.

Answ. And make thy chosen people joyful.

Priest. O Lord, save thy people.

Answ. And bless thine inheritance.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answ. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Priest. O Lord, save thy servants,

Answ. Who do put their trust in thee.

Priest. Send us help from thy holy place.

Answ. And evermore mightily defend us.

Priest. Let the enemy have no advantage against us:

Answ. Nor the wicked approach to hurt us.

Priest. Be unto us, O Lord, a strong tower,

Answ. From the face of our enemies.

Priest. O Lord, hear our prayer,

Answ. And let our cry come unto thee.

¶ Instead

¶ Instead of the Collect for the Day, shall be used these which follow.

Great and Glorious Lord God, Just and Terrible in thy Judgments, and Unsearchable in all thy Ways, at whose Rebuke the Earth trembles, and the very Foundations of the Hills shake, who also commandest the Winds and the Sea, and they obey: We vile Dust and miserable Sinners, in a most awful Sense of thy amazing Judgments, our own great and manifold Provocations, and thy tender Mercy to the Penitent, do with all humility of Soul cast our selves down before thy Footstool, bewailing our Unworthiness, and imploring thy Pity and the Bowels of thy Compassion. We beseech thee, O Lord, to awaken our Consciences; that we may see and duly consider thy Hand, which in so astonishing a manner has been lifted up against us. Pardon our own crying Sins and those of the whole Nation, which have drawn down this thy heavy Displeasure upon us; and grant us such a Measure of thy Grace, that we may no more disobey thy Laws, abuse thy Goodness and Forbearance, or despise Thy and other thy Chastisements, lest a worse Thing come unto us. It is of thy Goodness, O Lord, that we were not all consum'd by the late Winds and Storms which fulfill'd thy Commandment, and that in the midst of Judgment thou didst remember Mercy, shewing forth the Care of thy Providence in so many wonderful Preservations of thy People. Let the Remembrance of them work in us such a Thankfulness of Heart, and such a Seriousness and Watchfulness of Spirit, that no Calamity may ever be a Surprise to us, nor Death it self come upon us unawares; that so we may at length arrive safely at that blessed Kingdom which cannot be shaken: For the Sake of Jesus Christ our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

O most

O Most Glorious and Gracious God, whose Judgments against obstinate Offenders, are most severe and terrible, but whose Mercies are infinite to all them that with hearty Repentance and true Faith turn unto thee; We the sinful People of this Land, do adore thy most righteous Judgment in all that is come upon us, and do humble our selves under thy mighty Hand; acknowledging before thee with shame and confusion of face, that we are no more worthy to be called thy Sons or thy Servants, whom neither thy Judgments have driven, nor thy Goodness led to Repentance. In mercy, O God, awaken us all to a true and deep sense of our manifold and often repeated Provocations. Pardon the great Offences of us thy Servants, and the crying Sins of the whole Nation; remove the Evils we still lie under; turn from us those we have just cause to fear; and howsoever thou mayst think fit to Correct us for our Sins, yet never deliver us up into the Hands of those Men whose Mercies are cruel. Pour out thy abundant Blessings upon our Gracious Queen, direct and bless Her in all Her Consultations, and compass Her with thy favour as with a shield: And more particularly we now prostrate our selves before thee, to implore thy Blessing upon Her Fleets and Armies, and those of Her Allies. Let it appear that thou the Lord our God art with us, to help us, and to fight our Battles. Bless us with Victory and Success, and in thy own good time with such a Peace, as may tend to the Glory of thy great Name, and the Preservation of thy Church and true Religion; the Honour and Safety of Her Majesty; and the Security and Prosperity of these Kingdoms. All which we humbly beg in the Name, and through the Mediation of thy Son Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The Collect for Peace.

O God, who art the Author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend us thy humble servants, in all assaults of our enemies; that we surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for Grace.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Here followeth the Litany.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the World: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the World: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy,

The Litany.

13

O holy, blessed and glorious Trinity, three persons and one God: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed and glorious Trinity, three persons and one God: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our sins: Spare us, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.

From all evil and mischief, from sin, from the crafts and assaults of the devil, from thy wrath, and from everlasting damnation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindness of heart; from pride, vain-glory, and hypocrisie; from envy, hatred, and malice, and all uncharitableness,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From fornication, and all other deadly sin; and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh, and the devil,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From lightning and tempest; from plague, pestilence and famine; from battle, and murder, and from sudden death,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all sedition, envy, conspiracy and rebellion; from all false doctrine, heresie and schism; from hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word and Commandment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of thy holy Incarnation; by thy holy Nativity and Circumcision; by thy Baptism, Fasting and Temptation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thine Agony and bloody Sweat; by thy Cross and Passion; by thy precious Death and Burial; by thy thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension; and by the coming of the Holy Ghost,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation; in all time of our wealth; in the hour of death, and in the day of Judgment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God, and that it may please thee to rule and govern thy holy Church universal in the right way;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to keep and strengthen in the true worshipping of thee, in righteousness and holiness of life, thy Servant ANNE, our most gracious Queen and Governour;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to rule her heart in thy faith, fear, and love; and that she may evermore have affiance in thee, and ever seek thy honour and glory;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to be her defender and keeper, giving her the victory over all her enemies;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and preserve Catherine the Queen Dowager, The Princess Sophia, and all the Royal Family;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, Priests and Deacons, with true knowledge and understanding of thy Word, and that both by their preaching and living, they may set it forth and shew it accordingly;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue the Lords of the Council, and all the Nobility, with grace, wisdom and understanding;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

nt

That it may please thee to bless and keep the Magistrates, giving them grace to execute Justice, and to maintain Truth;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep all thy people; We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all nations, unity, peace, and concord;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us an heart to love and dread thee, and diligently to live after thy commandments;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all thy people increase of grace, to hear meekly thy word, and to receive it with pure affection, and to bring forth the fruits of the Spirit;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bring into the way of truth, all such as have erred and are deceived;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to strengthen such as do stand, and to comfort and help the weak-hearted, and to raise up them that fall, and finally to beat down Satan under our feet;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to succour, help, and comfort all that are in danger, necessity, and tribulation;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to preserve all that travel by land or by water, all women labouring of child, all sick persons and young children, and to shew thy pity upon all prisoners and captives;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to defend and provide for the fatherless children and widows, and all that are desolate and oppressed;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That

That it may please thee to have mercy upon all men;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to forgive our enemies, persecutors, and slanderers, and to turn their hearts;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give and preserve to our use the kindly fruits of the earth, so as in due time we may enjoy them;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us true repentance, to forgive us all our sins, negligences and ignorances, and to endue us with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, to amend our lives according to thy holy Word;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Son of God: we beseech thee to hear us.

Son of God: we beseech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God: that takest away the sins of the world;

Grant us thy peace.

O Lamb of God: that takest away the sins of the world;

Have mercy upon us.

O Christ, hear us.

O Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Priest. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins.

Ans. Neither reward us after our iniquities.

¶ Let

¶ Let us pray.

O God merciful Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful; mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee, in all our troubles and adversities, whensoever they oppress us; and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and subtilty of the Devil or man worketh against us be brought to nought; and by the providence of thy goodness they may be dispersed, that we thy servants being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thy names sake.

O God, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that thou didst in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thine honour.

Glorie be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Christ.

Graciously look upon our afflictions.

Pitifully behold the sorrows of our hearts.

Mercifully forgive the sins of thy people.

Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.

O Son of David, have mercy upon us.

Both now and ever vouchsafe to hear us, O Christ.

Graciously hear us, O Christ; graciously hear us, O Lord Christ.

Priest. O Lord, let thy mercy be shewed upon us,

Ans. As we do put our trust in thee.

Let

Let us pray.

WE humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities; and for the glory of thy Name, turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved; and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore serve thee in holiness and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory, through our only Mediatour and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin, and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgment with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners; but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the People say this that followeth, after the Minister.

Turn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long-suffering and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Almighty God, who delightest not to grieve the children of men, yet as a wise and gracious Father dost chasten every son whom thou receivest; Behold with tender pity all those who have suffer'd by the late publick Calamity, in body, estate, friends, or relations. Give them patience and submission to thy holy will: Let them not murmur or repine, seeing it was thy doing, whose Judgments are always righteous, though they are a great deep. Be thou the Comforter of those who are cast down, O thou God of Consolation; and make up their temporal Losses by spiritual Advantages, and by future Blessings of this world, as thou seest necessary or convenient for them; and so sanctifie to all of us both the Mercies and Judgments which thou sendest, that at length we may be made happy in that perfect state, which is not subject to time or chance, where we shall sin no more, be no more disquieted, and die no more, but enter into that Everlasting Rest which thou hast promis'd through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O God the Father of mercies, who of thy great Goodness hast united us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ; we as living members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, and rejoicing with them that rejoyce, do now present our Supplications and Prayers at the throne of Grace, in behalf of all the Reformed Churches; beseeching thee to look down in especial manner, with an eye of mercy and pity, upon the sad and mournful estate of such of them, whom thou hast delivered over to the hands of superstitious and merciless men. Suffer not thy enemies still to triumph over thy Heritage. Plead thy Cause with them that blaspheme thy Truth and persecute thy People. Shew thy self to be their mighty Deliverer, so that all men may see it, and say, Verily there is a God that judgeth in the Earth. Enlighten all those who are in Darkness and Errour, and give them Repentance to the acknowledgment of the Truth: That all the ends of the earth may remember themselves, and be turned to the Lord: and we may all become one Flock under the great Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, Jesus Christ, our Blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Parliament.

Most gracious God, we humbly beseech thee, as for this Kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious Queen at this time assembled: That thou wouldst be pleased to direct and prosper all their Consultations to the Advancement of thy Glory, the Good of thy Church, the Safety, Honour and Welfare of our Sovereign, and her Kingdoms; that all things may be so ordered and settled by their Endeavours upon the best and surest Foundations, that Peace and Happiness, Truth and Justice, Religion and Piety may be established among us for all Generations. These and all other Necessaries for them, for us, us, and thy whole Church we humbly beg in the Name and Mediation of Jesus Christ our most Blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ The General Thanksgiving.

A Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us and to all men.

[* Particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.]

 This to be said when any that have been prayed for, desire to return praise.*

We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for thine ineffimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

A Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.

A Almighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts, by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnifie thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

We beseech thee, O Lord, to awaken our Consciences, that we may see and duly consider thy Hand, which in so astonishing a manner has been lifted up against us. The Epistle. St. James IV. Ver. I. to Ver. II.

From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts, that war in your members? Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God. Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit your selves therefore to God: resist the devil, and he will flee from you: Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you: cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purifie your hearts, ye double-minded. Be afflicted and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble your selves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

The Gospel. S. Luke VIII. Ver. 22. to Ver. 26.

Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they lanchted forth. But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid, wondered, wondred, saying one to another, What manner of man is this? for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

I Believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible :

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made: Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the prophets. And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

¶ Then followeth the Sermon; and after that shall be said,
Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorifie your Father which is in Heaven. St. Mat. 5. 16.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal 6. 10.

Let us pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth.

A Almighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and live in unity and godly love. We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian kings, princes and governors; and especially thy servant ANNE our Queen, that under her we may be godly and quietly governed: and grant unto her whole Council, and to all that are put in Authority under her, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true Religion and virtue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments: And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this Congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear and receive thy holy Word, truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all them who in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. And we also bless thy holy Name, for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy thy heavenly Kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christs sake, our only Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for Unity:

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, look down in much pity and compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking unto thee in Fasting and Prayer; and grant, we beseech thee, that our Humiliation and Repentance may have that blessed effect, that we may all cleanse our selves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in thy fear. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to lay to heart the great Dangers we are in, by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly Union and Concord: That as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one Hope of our Calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all; so we may henceforth be all of one Heart and of one Soul, united in one holy Bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorifie thee, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for our Enemies.

O Father of Mercies, and Lover of Souls, who art kind to the unthankful and to the evil, and hast commanded us to extend our Charity even to those that hate us: We beseech thee to have pity upon those who without any just cause are our Enemies; disappoint their devices, give them a due sight and sense of their pride and malice, shed abroad thy love in their hearts; endue them with a meek, and

and humble and charitable Spirit: that there may be joy, both in Heauen and on earth, at their Conversion, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the Petitions of them that ask in thy Sons Name;
We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us, that have made now our Prayers and Supplications unto thee, and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy Will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing.

The Peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Iesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Order for Evening Prayer.

¶ Let him that ministreth, read with a loud voice these Sentences of Scripture, and after them the Exhortation following.

C O the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws which he set before us. Dan. 9. 9, 10.

O Lord, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing. Jer. 10. 24.

D EARLY beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

A Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

A Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The first Lesson, Lam. III. from Ver. 22. to the end.

Magnificat. S. Luke I. 46.

My soul doth magnifie the Lord : and my spirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded : the lowliness of his hand-maiden.

For behold, from henceforth : all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me : and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him : throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm : he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat : and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

¶ The Second Lesson, Hebr. XI. from Ver. 32. to the end.

Deus misereatur. Psal. 67.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us.

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoyce and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase; and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

GREAT and Glorious Lord God, Just and Terrible in thy Judgments and Unsearchable in all thy Ways, at whose Rebuke the Earth trembles, and the very Foundations of the Hills shake, who also commandest the Winds and the Sea, and they obey: We vile Dust and miserable Sinners, in a most awful Sense of thy amazing Judgments, our own great and manifold Provocations, and thy tender Mercy to the Penitent, do with all humility of Soul cast ourselves down before thy Footstool, bewailing our Unworthiness, and imploring thy Pity and the Bowels of thy Compassion. We beseech thee, O Lord, to awaken our Consciences, that we may see and duly consider thy Hand, which in so astonishing a manner has been lifted up against us. remember Mercy, shewing forth the Care of thy Providence in so many wonderful Preservations of thy People. Let the Remembrance of them work in us such a Thankfulness of Heart, and such a Seriousness and Watchfulness of Spirit, that no Calamity may ever be a Surprise to us, nor Death it self come upon us unawares; that so we may at length arrive safely at that blessed Kingdom which cannot be shaken: For the Sake of Jesus Christ our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

O Most glorious and gracious God, whose Judgments against obstinate offenders are most severe and terrible, but whose Mercies are infinite to all them that with hearty Repentance and true Faith turn unto thee; We the sinful people of this Land, do adore thy most righteous Judgment in all that is come upon us, and do humble our selves under thy mighty hand; acknowledging before thee with shame and confusion of face, that we are no more worthy to be called thy sons or thy servants, whom neither thy Judgments have driven, nor thy Goodness led to Repentance. In mercy, O God, awaken us all to a true and deep sense of our manifold and often repeated provocations. Pardon the great offences of us thy servants, and the crying sins of the whole Nation; remove the evils we still lie under; turn from us those we have just cause to fear; and howsoever thou mayst think fit to correct us for our sins, yet never deliver us up into the hands of those men whose mercies are cruel. Pour out thy abundant Blessings upon our Gracious Queen, direct and bless her in all her consultations, and compals her with thy favour as with a shield. And more particularly we now prostrate our selves before thee, to implore thy Blessing upon her Fleets and Armies, and those of her Allies. Let it appear that thou the Lord our God art with us to help us, and to fight our Battles. Bless us with Victory and Success, and in thy own good time with such such a Peace, as may tend to the Glory of thy great Name, and the Preservation of thy Church and true Religion; the Honour and Safety of Ver Majesty; and the Security and Prosperity of these Kingdoms. All which we humbly beg in the Name, and through the Mediation of thy Son Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

¶ The third Collect at Evening Prayer.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

¶ The fourth Collect for Aid against all Perils.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldst not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burthen of our sins. ways to have mercy ; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed ; enter not into judgment with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners ; but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our villeness, and truly repent us of our faults ; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the People say this that followeth after the Minister.

Turn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long-suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Almighty God, who delightest not to grieve the children of men, yet as a wise and gracious Father dost chasten every son whom thou receivest ; Behold with tender pity all those who have suffer'd by the late publick Calamity, in body, estate, friends, or relations. Give them patience and submission to thy holy will : Let them not murmur or repine, seeing it was thy doing, whose Judgments are always righteous, though they are a great deep. Be thou the Comforter of those who are cast down, O thou God of Consolation ; and make up their temporal Losses by spiritual Advantages, and by future Blessings of this world, world, as thou seest necessary or convenient for them; and so sanctifie to all of us both the Mercies and Judgments which thou sendest, that at length we may be made happy in that perfect state, which is not subject to time or chance, where we shall sin no more, be no more disquieted, and die no more, but enter into that Everlasting Rest which thou hast promis'd through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Queens Majesty.

O Lord, our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only Ruler of Princes, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lady Queen ANNE, and so replenish her with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that she may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: endue her plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant her in health and wealth long to live, strengthen her that she may vanquish and overcome all her enemies; and finally after this life she may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Royal Family.

A Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless Catherine the Queen Dowager, The Princess Sophia, and all the Royal Family: Endue them with thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace; prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels; Send down upon our Bishops and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O God the Father of Mercies, who of thy great goodness hast united us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ; we as living Members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, and rejoicing with them that rejoyce, do now present our Supplications and Prayers at the throne of Grace, in behalf of all the Reformed Churches; beseeching thee to look down, in especial manner, with an eye of mercy and pity, upon the sad and mournful estate of such of them, whom thou hast delivered over to the hands of superstitious and merciless men; suffer not thy Enemies still to triumph over thy heritage. Plead thy Cause with them that blaspheme thy Truth and persecute thy people. Shew thy self their mighty Deliverer, so that all Men may see it, and say, Verily there is a God that judgeth in the Earth. Enlighten all those who are in Darkness and Errour, and give them Repentance to the acknowledgment of the Truth; that all the Ends of the Earth may remember themselves, and be turned to the Lord; and we may all become one flock, under the great Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, Jesus Christ, our blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ A Prayer

¶ A Prayer for Unity.

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, look down in much pity and compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking unto thee in Fasting and Prayer; and grant, we beseech thee, that our Humiliation and Repentance may have that blessed effect, that we may all cleanse our selves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to lay to heart the great Dangers we are in, by our unhappy Divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from Godly Union and Concord: That as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one Hope of our Calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all; so we may henceforth be all of one Heart and of one Soul, united in one holy Bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorifie thee, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for our Enemies.

O Father of mercies, and lover of Souls, who art kind to the unthankful and to the evil, and hast commanded us to extend our Charity, even to those that hate us. We beseech thee to have pity upon those who without any just cause are our enemies; disappoint their devices, give them a due sight and sense of their pride and malice, shed abroad thy love in their hearts; endue them with a meek, and humble, and charitable Spirit; that there may be joy, both in heaven and earth, at their Conversion, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Parliament.

Most gracious God, we humbly beseech thee, as for this Kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious Queen at this time assembled: That thou wouldst be pleased to direct and prosper all their Consultations to the Advancement of thy Glory, the good of thy Church, the Safety, Honour and Welfare of our Sovereign, and her Kingdoms; that all things may be so ordered and settled by their Endeavours upon the best and surest Foundations, that Peace and Happiness, Truth and Justice, Religion and Piety may be established among us for all Generations. These and all other necessities for them, for us, and thy whole Church, we humbly beg in the Name and Mediation of Jesus Christ our most Blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ The General Thanksgiving.

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us and to all men.

[* Particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.]

We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

 This to be said when any that have been prayed for, desire to return praise.*

¶ A Prayer of S. Chrysostom.

A Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.
